

TREC GB SUMMER
COMPETITIONS
2022

Kensham Farm PoR
British TREC competition

Organised by The South East TREC Group

On Sunday 24th April 2022

To be held at

Kensham Farm, Cadmore End, High Wycombe, Buckinghamshire, HP14 3PR

By kind permission of Alex Nelms and the Edgley family

Technical Delegate: Joy Taylor

Event Organiser: Ann Maisel

Traceurs: Ann Maisel and Bea Boreham

Event Secretary: Katy Smith

This Level 1 Affiliated TREC PoR competition is the horseback orienteering section of TREC. The competition involves the skills and situations a rider might encounter on a hack, including map reading (using Ordnance Survey maps at 1:25 000 scale)

For more information about TREC, please visit the TREC GB website <http://trecgb.com/>

This competition gives you the chance to ride across picturesque countryside along a route that has been checked for accessibility. The competition will take place mostly off road and includes the use of private tracks. There are classes for individuals and pairs.

You will NOT need to ride across/ over/ under the motorway or any main roads!

Enquiries –Katy Smith, Event Secretary: Katymsmith@hotmail.com

Entries will only be accepted on a fully completed Google form with payment. Entries will close when the competition is full, or on 10th April 2022. Late entries will be accepted at the discretion of the organiser and may be subject to a surcharge. Please enter early as places are limited. If entries are full before the closing date, a waiting list will be held based on the date the entry was received.

Equine Flu Requirements: TREC GB requires that all equines must be vaccinated against Equine Influenza and that organisers of any events involving equines insist that vaccinations are up to date (12-month cycle) and check passports before horses are unloaded. Full details of the TREC GB Equine Flu Vaccination requirements are available on the website (<https://trecgb.com/trec-gb-equine-flu-requirements/>)

Your horse can be registered on the TREC GB central register by sending a copy of the full vaccination record and horse registration page from the horse's passport to admin@trecgb.com

Start times and directions

These will be available on the SETG website <http://www.setrec.org.uk/> by the Wednesday before the event and will also be sent by email to competitors.

Toilets:

There are toilets on site.

Water provision

Water for horses is available from a tap on site, please bring a bucket!

Catering

Tom Stuart from Pizza Please Henley will be on site in his converted horse trailer from 11am-3pm selling delicious freshly made Artisan Stone Baked Pizzas, as well as drinks and homemade brownies. Please support this fantastic local catering venture.

Farrier

A farrier is NOT available locally to be on call. Please ensure that your horse is well shod in advance of the event.

Vet

The local veterinary practice Hampden Partners Ltd of Aylesbury will be on call in case of emergency. Their number is 01296 745374, and the organiser should also be informed if the vet is required during the event.

Photographer

Alex Jordan of Equilens Photography will attend the event and is also sponsoring prizes for the winners of each class. Photographs may be purchased on her website at <http://www.equilens.co.uk>

Camping and corralling

There is no camping or corralling at the competition venue, however Cholsey Farm is nearby and offers stabling, corralling, camping and self-catering accommodation. Bookings can be made directly with Cholsey Farm <https://www.cholseyfarmriding.co.uk/> Please mention that you are participating in our event.

Helpers

All TREC competitions rely on the support of volunteer judges and helpers. Can you or anyone coming with you lend a hand? Please contact Ann Maisel, the event organiser, on 07986 856032 if you can assist us with judging or stewarding on the day. Competitors can also help us with setting up and clearing equipment away etc. No judging experience necessary – we are grateful for all offers of help and you will learn lots from the inside! Even a couple of hours of help can make a difference and there are lots of jobs suitable for non-horse mums/dads/partners.

Health and Safety

The event organiser will take all reasonable precautions to ensure the health and safety of everyone present. For these measures to be effective, everyone must take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent accidents occurring and must obey the instructions of the officials and stewards on the day.

A trained First Aider will be present at the event and should be summoned through an official in the event of an accident.

Competitors are asked to safeguard valuable tack and possessions. Young children must be supervised at all times. Neither the event organiser nor the land owners can accept responsibility for loss or injury to persons or animals howsoever caused.

Dogs must be kept on short leads at all times.

TREC GB has adopted a Safeguarding Policy and expects every adult working or helping at, or taking part in, TREC GB events to support it and comply with it. The TREC GB Safeguarding Policy is available at <https://trecgb.com/wp-content/uploads/TREC-GB-Safeguarding-Policy-V1.1.pdf>

Competition Rules

All competitors must comply with the TREC GB Rules as per the 6th edition TREC GB rulebook (plus subsequent amendments), which can be found at <https://trecgb.com/rules/>

In addition, pay particular attention to the following:

- 1) Horses must be a minimum of four years old to compete at this event (i.e. a horse born in 2018 may compete in 2022). Mares more than four months pregnant may not compete.
- 2) The welfare of horses competing in British TREC competitions is paramount. No horse may compete if it is unsound or unfit to carry the rider for any reason. Any rider who continues on a horse that they know to be unsound or that has been definitively stopped by the veterinary surgeon or designated competent official on fitness and/ or welfare grounds will be eliminated from the competition.
- 3) Riders under the age of fourteen on the day of competition may only compete in Pairs classes and must be accompanied by a rider of 18 years or older. Pairs ride together for POR. Parents/guardians of competitors under the age of 18 on the day of the competition will be required to complete a Parental Consent Form (available on the TREC GB website <https://trecgb.com/wp-content/uploads/5.-TRECGBParentalConsent-form-v1.2-1.docx>).
- 4) All riders competing must be members of either South East TREC Group, TREC GB or a club affiliated to TREC GB. Non members will pay an additional fee to become members of SETG for the duration of the competition.
- 5) Clearly visible coloured tail wraps/ribbons should be worn to advise other riders of a potential hazard – Red = kicker, Green = young/inexperienced horse, Blue = stallion. If the horse/pony is a stallion then stallion discs must also be worn on both sides of the bridle.

It is your responsibility to familiarise yourself with the basic rules. The TREC GB Rulebook (6th edition 1 April 2022 and the changes to it) can be found on the TREC GB website, <https://trecgb.com/rules/>

Required Equipment

Tack and equipment will be checked. Please see Appendix 3: Equipment List starting on page 62 in the 6th edition TREC GB rulebook.

Safety Helmet Standards

A safety helmet conforming to one of the following standards must be worn, with the chinstrap fastened, at all times when mounted.
